Bob Tyson Stars as Lower Merion Opens Ball Season

Bob Tyson, Lower Merion's number one pitcher, twirled his second start of the baseball campaign last Monday and defeated Upper Darby, 10 to 9.

Baseball games are like cricket, tight with little scoring, or developing into scoring sprees. The Senior's first game with Upper Darby turned as usual into a game of hit or miss. The boys were on edge and the result was a riot of errors and omissions with enough hard hitting mixed in to give the spectators plenty of entertainment. On Monday Upper Darby, due to some timely hitting and a few errors by the infield, piled up a 7 to 1 lead going into the third inning. Lower Merion's inning came in the fifth when the visitors booted the game away. Cunningham, Jones and Don-drea furnished most of Lower Merion's hitting power.

The Abington game last week was a different type of contest. Tyson hooked up with Abington's ace pitcher in a duel that ended with Abington winning 1 to 0. Tyson limited the York road boys to 1 hit, but inferior infield work permitted them to score.

Last Friday Brown Prep defeated the locals, who were listless, 9 to 3.

Coach Drumm's Bulldog trackmen won the Montco championships last Saturday on Pennypacker Field by an overwhelming margin. Norristown did not compete.

Yesterday saw one of the finest track meets of the season as 37 schools visited Lower Merion Junior High School in their annual Invitation Junior High School Relays.

Baseball Starts

May 21 in Main Line League; System Stays

The Shaughnessy system of play-off among the four leading teams will remain in effect this year in the Main Line Baseball League whose opening games will be played May 21.

A schedule of 28 games was adopted Monday at Narberth when league leaders voted into the circuit two new teams: Angora of Yeadon and Maun. Paoli has been merged with Berwyn and holdovers with managers from 1937 include Narberth, Gene Davis defending champions; Gladwyne, George Nellings; West Phillies, Ed Sullivan; Upper Darby, Walt Heaton and Dave Mulligan; Berwyn, Bob Doyle and Dan Redmond, and Coatesville.

Narberth will open the season at Upper Darby, with the Davismen's first home game the next day, May 22, against Gladwyne.

At the meeting Monday, Ray Cabrey, Narberth Club president and chairman of the 1937 "dream game" committee, said the committee had voted to give the proceeds of that game to Mickey Gavin, former Narberth shortstop who lost his leg in an accident the day after the close of the 1936 season.

The question of insurance for players was discussed.

Indorsements

of Flynn and Reese Given at Narberth Legion Meeting

Aid given by John E. Flynn, Narberth, county assistant district attorney, to the Lower Merion police department was highly lauded Tuesday night by Detective Lieutenant William C. Shaffer, of the township force, who addressed the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, at the Community Building.

The lieutenant also explained how the new county-wide police radio system would help to apprehend criminals. He was introduced by Robert C. Collins, past post commander.

Harold L. Reese, Wynnewood, past commander of the Ninth District, was indorsed unanimously for the post of Eastern Vice-Commander in the Department of Pennsylvania.

John C. Clarke, recently named chairman of the Legion's Ninth District Highway Safety Committee, spoke of the increase of deaths caused by automobiles.

The post will send one or more boys to a Legion camp this summer to receive training in citizenship.

Lie Detecting

Was done at Tuesday's Raleghian Rotary meeting, by A. K. Van Tine, of Drexel, who came by courtesy of Dr. R. C. Meares.

This chemical gadget recorded the emotional response of his subjects: W. S. Howard, W. H. Durlan, J. P. Carroll, C. J. Albrecht, T. B. Wicky and Guy Croyle.

Is What We Are," Dr. Edward Twitmyer Told

The Parent-Teacher Association last Thursday evening at the Narberth Public School, "Character development of children must be done at home, all parents should be good examples to their children and analyze these weak points, both their good and weak points, so that they may overcome in their offspring, who thus will become of sound character. Character development must begin when the child is very small and must be consistent."

Scout Elaine Starr opened the meeting with the Salute to the Flag, Miss Frances B. Fricke, led the Community Singing, Mrs. Edmund A. Whiting, President, appointed the following committee to nominate officers: chairman, Henry A. Frye; Joseph Tripician, Mrs. Leslie B. Moxon, Mrs. John R. Stam and Mrs. W. P. Dunnington.

There was a large attendance. A social hour followed.

The rummage sale last Saturday was a huge success and the Committee wishes to thank all those who helped, both by work and contributions.

The P. T. A. Chorus will have their Spring Festival Tuesday, May 24, in the School Auditorium. Rehearsals are now going on.

"Big-Hearted

Herbert" Will Settle Things This Week-End

It has long been an open question as to whether Father or Mother knows best how to bring up the children. Some say one thing, some say another. Sophie Kerr seems to side with Mother, and proves her point very logically and entertainingly in her uproariously funny play "Big Hearted Herbert" being produced this Friday and Saturday by the Narberth Players.

A very capable cast headed by Blanche D. Houghler and J. Bedford Wooley, under the direction of Fay Fetterolf assures a smooth performance. These capable players are supported by J. Bedford Wooley, Jr., Richard Graham, Katherine Slee, Myrtle Hager, Philip Roger, Beatrice Carver, George McAllister, Mary Muller, Bessie McAllister and Matthew Callahan.

A feature of the performance will be the special set built for this production and special lighting effects, including the installation of six spot lights.

Curtain is sharp 8.45 daylight saving time.

Mrs. Booth Heads

M. L. Girl Scouts

Mrs. Henry D. Booth was elected chairman of the Main Line Girl Scout committee, and Mrs. E. DeForest Curtis, recording secretary, at the annual meeting last week. Other officers elected are: vice chairman, Mrs. Philip F. Murray, who is also Program chairman; treasurer, Mrs. J. P. Twaddell; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Reuel S. Burr.

Merion troop 230 will visit the Griscom Bird Sanctuary at Roslyn Monday afternoon and have their supper there, while the other half will hike out Cherry lane woods for supper.

Mrs. Homer Eachus is leader, and she will be assisted by the troop committee, whose chairman is Mrs. John P. Scott.

Miss Eunice Griswold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Griswold, of Chestnut avenue, will be a member of the chorus for the operetta, "Princess Ida," which will be presented at Tufts College, early in May.

Miss Griswold is also in charge of the athletic competition for her sorority, the Sigma Kappa, in the Jackson Field Day which will be held the middle of May. She is a sophomore Liberal Arts' student and a member of the College Glee Club.

The Political Pot

Peter C. Hess Heads "James Committee"

"James for Governor Committee" has been organized in Montgomery County with Peter C. Hess, Lower Merion Republican leader as the chairman.

Mr. Hess, who was appointed by Judge Arthur H. James, has selected a committee to work with him in planning an intensive campaign for the Republican gubernatorial candidate.

The committee members are: Harold C. Pike, of Cheltenham Township; Mrs. Mary H. Beerer, of Norristown; John C. Hoffman, of Norristown; Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., of Haverford; and Sheriff Edwin H. Bellis, of Jenkintown, as vice chairman; Joseph K. Weaver, of Lansdale, secretary; and George H. Bennett, Jenkintown publisher, treasurer.

Judge James will be in Montgomery County Saturday, May 7, and the Committee is arranging a program to permit the voters of this county to hear him. Headquarters will be opened in Norristown in the near future, Mr. Hess announced.

An operation for gallstones will keep Congressman J. William Ditter out of the Primary campaign. A fellow patient with the same complaint at the Abington Memorial Hospital is Harold C. Pike, Cheltenham Township manager, who withdrew from the State Senatorial race after his admission last week. The congressman will be missed by other candidates he would have aided but his own re-nomination is unopposed.

A parade of autos, starting at the Narberth baseball field May 10, and proceeding through the Lower and Upper Merions to Norristown where a rally for Samuel E. Ewing, Jr., Bryn Mawr, candidate for State Senatorial nomination will be held that evening, is planned by the Young Republican Council of the First Legislative District, with Robert Reinhart, Merion as parade chairman. Tuesday night 25 Young Republicans met at the Wynnewood House to plan their part in the campaign.

Democrats are planning a big Earle-Jones rally on Wednesday at the county seat and local delegations will leave from Ardmore headquarters, 50 West Lancaster avenue, . . . Speaking at a rally at Ardmore Tuesday night, Morris G. Gerber, Norristown, State Deputy Attorney, predicted that Earle and Jones would carry every third class county in the State and that 80 per cent of the voting Democrats would support that ticket. Also addressing the 250 persons present were John T. Durnin, Lower Merion-Narberth Democratic chairman; Joseph F. McElwee, Merion, former treasurer of the county Democrats; and Robert Wilson, Merion. R. Meade Smith, Lower Merion-Narberth vice chairman, presided. Democratic women for the Earle-Jones nomination, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mildred Thompson, Merion, will meet Monday night at Ardmore headquarters.

A Card Party is being given by the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women Tuesday, May 10, at the Deanery, Bryn Mawr College, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John P. Twaddell, of Haverford.

Third Floor

Blaze Causes $2000 Damage, Keeps Firemen Busy 2½ Hours

Third floor of the residence of Dr. Edward V. Wright, 310 Chestnut avenue, was badly damaged Saturday night by a blaze and the lower floors also were damaged to lesser extent which Narberth firemen battled for two and one-half hours.

Members of the family and neighbors moved most of the furniture from the second and first floors into the street, and then into neighbors' homes. Total damage was estimated at close to $2000.

Dr. Wright is a dentist with offices at 18th and Chestnut streets.

Perdue Cleaver, a veteran Gilbert and Sullivan actor, appearing tonight in "Pinafore" and "Trial by Jury," being given by the Rose Valley Choral Group, will play the leading comedy role in the Bala-Cynwyd Choral's "Yeomen of the Guard" next week-end.

Firemen's Benefit Week May 16

To buy furniture for their club room the Active Firemen of the Narberth Company will hold a benefit at the Narberth Theatre the entire week of May 16. All members will sell tickets, house to house.

Attractions will be first three days "Merrily We Live" with Constance Bennett followed by "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" with Shirley Temple.

Narberth School

On April 22, Mr. Lehman was responsible for the auditorium program. The devotions were led by Virginia Durbin. The program was divided into three parts:

(1) Radio program: Announcer, Harry Middleton; features, Walter Winchell, Uncle Josh at the dentist, sports review, a story of a baseball game and a small skit.

(2) Bob Wells and Jim Pruitt showed the wrong and correct way to phone. Then Gloria Civitello and Phoebe Jane Ezickson showed a few pointers on letter writing.

(3) A play showing part of the story, "Courtship of Miles Standish." Tom Butler told the first part, then Bob Miller and Patsy Krauskop acted out a little of the story, after which Tom finished telling the story.

There was a song by the Glee Club which ended the program.

Mr. Lehman would like to add that all work on the program had been done in class during the year and demonstrated the importance of English in life outside of school.

ELEANOR HAYWOOD,

Student Reporter,

Ellet Hall Patrol

The new Hall Patrol has been elected. As this is the last patrol for the year, two seventh grade girls and three seventh grade boys have also been elected. The officers are: President, Bob Narrigan; vice-president, Virginia Durbin; secretary, Edna Andrews, and Sergeant-at-Arms, Charles Latch. The others on the patrol are George Woodrow, Elaine Starr, Jane Nulty, Nellie Curran, Lois Schenck, Loyal Graham, Jack Young, Bob Phillips and Justin Casavecchia.

Softball League

Has 14 Clubs in Circuit; Ardmore Parade Opens Season

A parade in Ardmore Monday night opened the season for 14 clubs in the Main Line Softball League. Tuesday night the teams met in the opener.

Narberth shut out the Thomas M. Royal team, 3-0, as Middleton, of the victors, yielded but three hits. Merion Fire Company defeated Cadillac, 22-3, and other winners were Preston, Ardmore American Legion, Brookline and Soapys A. C.

Popularity of the pastime is indicated by the fact that not only are all of last year's eight teams back and ready for more, but also that six new units will vie for the pennant.

This borough's representatives, the Narberth Methodists, are among the newcomers. Home games are played Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Borough School grounds.

Lutherans' Play

Was So Successful "Uncle Tom" is Coming

An enthusiastic audience enjoyed the two performances of "Red Headed Stepchild" on Thursday and Friday of last week at the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. There was applause as the third act curtain arose on a beautiful setting depicting the living room of a Main Line home. Outside the casement windows and in the background, was a cherry tree which shed its blossoms on the window sill.

The cast, members of the Senior Luther League, gave whole-hearted characterizations. Anita MacFarland on Thursday and Patricia Cowie on Friday played "Bess" with all the vigor of the Western plains.

The choice of the play and the sensitive direction in its casting and changes of tempo reflect credit upon the dramatic coach, Dorothy Elwood, who for several years directed her own Little Theater in San Francisco.

Plans are now being made for a musical adaptation of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," to be presented in late summer by the Luther League and the Church Choir, under the same direction.

Expansion of Our Town into Town and Township is Planned

Also, at Monday's Meeting:

Treasurer J. J. Whiteside reported a balance of $217.66, with $390.50 in dues to be collected. . . . $460.35 has been paid for printing and mailing the Business Guide.

Co-operation of the P. R. R. storekeepers whose employees' cars are parked in the Station Circle, and residents in general, was urged by Mr. Dunne as a partial remedy of business section parking congestion. . . . A survey will be made for the Planning Commission, with a view to improving conditions.

Mrs. Suzanne Joret Gill, whose Small Business talk at Washington won comment on the radio, Time and the Post, brought a suggestion for a business-building stunt, on which she is getting the details.

Firemen Feted

And Justly Praised at Annual Banquet Given by Mulieres

Following a delicious dinner, served annually by the Mulieres, Women's Auxiliary of the Narberth Fire Company, the borough's active firemen were lauded for their efficiency and co-operation by city, township and town officials.

Toastmaster Tristan B. duMarais, president of the company, introduced Ed Pollock, Merion, sports editor of the Economic Ledger, who gave a pep talk on sports and several interesting reminiscences of athletic events.

Other speakers included Ross Davis, chief engineer of the Philadelphia Bureau of Fire; Julius Ziegler, president of the Township Board of Commissioners; Burgess Frank A. Schrepfer, Narberth; Peter C. Hess, Lower Merion Township treasurer; Dr. Frank P. K. Barker, vice-president of the township's commissioners; Samuel W. Gearhart, Lower Merion superintendent of police.

Volunteers paid tribute to their late chief, Charles V. Noel, when a bouquet of red roses was presented to his widow, Mrs. Loretta Noel, following the dinner.

On behalf of the active members, Chief John A. Miller gave directors' badges to William H. Durbin, former chairman of the Public Safety Committee of Borough Council, and to his successor, Roland Fleer; Dr. Albert C. Barnes, honorary vice-president of the firemen, who was unable to attend; George Carr and Mrs. Bessie Ezickson, president of the Mulieres.

The guest list included the presidents and chiefs of most of the Main Line fire companies and borough and township officials.

3 Blue Ribbons

Won by Borough Club at County Federation Meeting

The Women's Community Club of Narberth, which sent fifteen delegates to the Montgomery County conference at Souderton last week, came home with three blue ribbons and special mention.

The club received first prize for the second time this year in the judging of the Press Books. Mrs. J. J. Martin, Gardens chairman, received two blue ribbons for miniature bouquets which she entered in the name of the club.

Narberth was given great applause when Mrs. E. W. Heymann, president, announced a new membership of 78, more than twice that of any other club in the county. Departments cited by county chairman for outstanding reports are: Conservation, Gardens, International Relations, Public Welfare, Home and Citizenship, Legislation, Art, and Press and Publicity.

The Board of Directors, meeting Tuesday morning, voted three more members: Mrs. John H. MacLeod, Mrs. Edmund Allen Whiting, and Mrs. John Harold Way. The directors also announce a gift of $10 to the National Infantile Paralysis fund, of $5 to the Mary Morris Hamilton scholarship fund, and $1.25 toward the prize for an essay on International Relations to be given at L. M. Senior H. S.

Board Delegate to the State Federation convention at Pittsburgh next Wednesday—Friday will be Mrs. C. E. McMillan, alternate Mrs. G. W. Orth, from the club will be Mrs. Chester C. McKibbin, alternate, Mrs. J. S. Erickson.

Would Become the Home Paper of the Eastern Main Line

TO BE OWNED LOCALLY

Narberth's Business Council at its April meeting, held Monday night in the Arcadia, heard how OUR TOWN may become TOWN AND TOWNSHIP—a larger paper with the Eastern Main Line as its basis of subscriptions and of advertising patronage.

President Ralph S. Dunne, introducing the subject, told of two meetings—at the General Wayne Inn and the Wynnewood House—which were attended recently by civic leaders of Narberth, Penn Valley, Merion, Bala-Cynwyd and Wynnewood. Their result was an agreement that OUR TOWN, which has increased considerably in circulation and advertising, should be expanded in its service, while retaining its distinctive flavor of suburban weekly journalism. . . . And that this expansion can come as a result of more advertising, which in turn will come when the circulation is increased to cover the rich trading area of the entire Eastern Main Line, said to represent the highest per capita purchasing power in America.

Former Councilman Robert Fellows Wood spoke in favor of the project, pointing out that Narberth's population of less than 5,000 makes a circulation of more than 1500 impossible for OUR TOWN, and that TOWN AND TOWNSHIP's potential circulation is well over 3,000, which would attract national and Philadelphia advertising, needed to augment the local ad. revenue in supporting a bigger, better paper.

John J. Cabrey, civic leader, who raised funds for such projects as the playground, the reorganized bank, Fourth of July celebrations, American Legion, ball club, etc., reviewed the history of OUR TOWN from the days when the Narberth Civic Association founded it; said that lately it has not been owned locally and that it is desirable and possible to buy the paper, ending the lease under which it has been operated by the present publisher since November first.

"My interest," he said, "is in Narberth having a home journal on a progressive basis that will represent the town, and also the communities nearby, reporting the news and neighborhood lore, and taking part in controversies and fun, and which will properly reflect the outlook and substance of this attractive suburban area. . . . OUR TOWN has done well by us, this past half year, but it cannot provide a full service unless it is better organized and supported. . . . If we are to have the things the locality needs, our citizens must provide them, as the kind of paper which ought to exist does not lend itself to outside ownership or control. It should be of and for the people who live hereabouts."

Stock at $10 a share is being subscribed, in a small corporation whose seven directors, it was pointed out, should be truly representative, and with OUR TOWN's Tom Elwood continuing as editor.

In order that the paper's ownership may be widespread without the domination of any individual or group, the shares are being made available to the local public at large, and to the business people, with small commitments being encouraged and on an installment payment basis if necessary.

Dr. Anderson Trenton Speaker

The Rev. Dr. Archer E. Anderson, pastor of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, will be the anniversary speaker when the Third Presbyterian Church of Trenton observes the 89th birthday of its Sunday School this Sunday.

Union to Aid Colony

The Narberth Women's Christian Temperance Union held its monthly meeting Monday in the home of Mrs. W. A. Fox, 31 Narbrook Park. Mrs. A. W. Ward was in charge of the devotional period. The Rev. Horace L. Fenton, assistant pastor of the Ardmore Presbyterian Church, presented the needs of the Keswick Colony of Mercy, Keswick Grove, N. J. and it is the hope of the Union, that with the help of interested friends, it may contribute regularly to this most worthy cause.

Delightful Comedy Playing at Egyptian This Week-End

The Egyptian presents this Friday and Saturday, April 29-30, Constance Bennett and Brian Aherne, a delightful co-starring team, in "Merrily We Live," an uproarious story of one of the daffiest families ever pictured.

"International Settlement," which is playing at the Egyptian on Monday and Tuesday, May 2-3, co-stars Dolores Del Rio and George Sanders in an amazing drama.

Commencing May 4, the Egyptian presents, "The Girl of the Golden West," co-starring Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy in an excellent blending of charming music and the romance of California in her early gold camp days.

In a collision at Woodside and Essex avenues, Narberth, a truck owned by Potter's Market and driven by Chester Tyson, Jr., Sabine avenue, Narberth, and a passenger car driven by Miss Marguerite H. Bartlett, Winchester road, Merion, were both badly damaged.

THE ARNOLD GARDEN HOSE Insecticide Sprayer

When properly used, it takes the hard labor out of garden spraying and makes the job more efficient. The complete sprayer consists of a non-leak shut-off, a non-breakable, transparent cartridge chamber and twelve-inch angle spraying nozzle. Used with the various Arnold Insecticide Cartridges it provides a uniformly mixed, adequate spray—which effectively controls fungus growths, plant diseases and both sucking and chewing insects.

Women's Club

The theme of Anne Paul Thomas and her poetry, the singing of Mrs. W. R. Gales, and a book review by Mrs. J. S. Erickson made a splendid success of the closing meeting of the group on literature and international relations, Monday at the McCall Field Club. Forty-three members were present.

Mrs. Thomas, of Overbrook, came as a guest to the group and read from her book, "Not Always Lyrical." She started with a delightful group of stanzas about a neighbor's garden, then read poems of the sea, a humorous tale of an old sleigh, and ended with a deeper note in "Symphony of Peace."

Mrs. Gales, substitute leader of the club chorus, sang a group of three songs, accompanied by Mrs. A. B. Wheeler, also a club member.

Mrs. Erickson, who with Mrs. G. M. Shuster was hostess at the meeting, reviewed "Action at Aquila."

Mrs. Carl L. Wells, chairman of the Fellowship Committee, will hold a meeting of her committee at her home, 509 Beechwood lane, 2 P. M., Wednesday.

The closing luncheon will be at the community building May 10.
